THE BARK HOMEWARD BOUND STRANDED DUE-ING A DENSE FOG-CAPTAIN AND CREW RES-CUED.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

LONG BRANCH, March 21, 1879. The bark Homeward Bound, of Searsport, Me., Captain David Merriman commanding, thirty-seven lays out from Amsterdam in ballast for New York. stranded near Ocean Beach, about one mile north of Life Saving Station No. 8, during a dense fog at four o'clock this morning. The vessel was discovered by one of the life saving patrol, who, on seeing a rocket fired from the bark, immediately answered by showing his Coston light, after which he notified the crew. who appeared on the ground with the lifeboat at a quarter to five o'clock A. M. The captain and crew, onsisting of twelve men, all told, were landed with-ut serious difficulty or delay. Captain Merriman, when found by the HERALD reporter, was in the vicinity of the wreck in com-No. 7, and Captain Pitney Curtis, agent for the Coast Wrecking Company. When interrogated by the We left Amsterdam February 12 in ballast, onsigned to Carver & Barnes, New York. We ex-erienced heavy weather throughout the voyage and took a pilot aboard yesterday afternoon about quarter before six o'clock. We were heading rest by north, half a point north, and supposed ere forty miles from the Sandy Hook lightship. I did not give the pilot charge, as we were not yet in the pilot ground. A heavy fog settled down over us all night, and this morning it was very thick and what I would call a black fog. We sounded at twelve o'clock test night, and getting twenty-six ms, continued on our course, thinking that we were twenty miles off shore. A light easterly wind prevailed throughout the night until we struck, about four o'clock this morning, when we came ashore under full sail at about five knots an hour. I had just given the order to heave the lead when she stranded. All I can lay it to is that my chromometer must have got out of order. When we stranded I saw lights on the beach coming from opposite directions. We set off a rocket and were answered from the shore by a flash light, when we made hasty preparations to leave the ship. But by the time the lifeboat arrived, which was about an hour after we struck, we found that there was no danger of the bark's breaking, so we took our time and were all landed in four trips. The bark is about fourteen years old, and was built at Bucksport, Me. 1864, and is owned by James Pendleton and others of Searsport, Me. I own a sixteenth part of her. Do not know if she is insured or not. The Homeward Bound rates as Al'2 and registers 561 tons, and, I suppose, is worth $7.000 or $8,000. The bark struck bow on, but immediately swung around, so that her stern lies on the beach, with her bow headed southeast." were twenty miles off shore. A light easterly wind that her stern lies on the beach, with her bow headed southcast."

"I GO A FISHING."

Captain Pitney Curtis, agont for the Coast Wrecking Company, said to the reporter, "Although this crew did their duty this morning, the keeper of No. 8 was off at Weehawken shad fishing. He goes off every spring and pretends that he has a permit from the Secretary of the Treasury. He came down in the same train thit you did." Superintendent Havens was at the station house, and after Captain Ludlow arrived they were closeded together in the boat room some time. When the reporter lett he was unable to speak with Keeper Ludlow. Several fishermen, who were standing on the beach, stated that the Captain went thining every spring. He sometimes, they said, somes home on Saturday night and remains over Sunday, going off the first of the week 'gain.

THE WIRECKERS ON THE SCENE.

The Coast Wrecking Company's steamer Relief arrived at the wreck about four o'clock to lay anchor and cables. A boat, manned by surfmen started out to assist in bringing the cable in to the back, but as the sea was rising rapidly Captain Curtis said it would be impossible to work on the vessel, and ordered the men back before they had crossed the bar. As the bark's crew had been put on board after breakfast, where they remained during the day, and as there was no work to be done after the wrecking company's agent ordered his men ashore, Captain Ludlow took the steering car of his boat and went off and brought the crew a shore in a creditable manner. But as the boat struck the beach two of the seamen in their haste struck the beach two of the seamen in their haste attempted to jump out as the wave receded, but wore immediately caught by the next breaker and carried unto the sea, where they were rescued by some of the life saving crew. Should the weather prove favorable an attempt will be made to lay the cables to-morrow. Pilot Alonso Beebe said that he did not have charge, as Captain Merriman wanted to save offshore pilotage, as popoling le was forty miles off t

ONLY ONE SAVED.

Information was received in Newark, N. J., yester day, that a boat belonging to the bark Morning Star, which was wrecked off the South Carolina coast on March 13, had been picked up by the bark Sea Bird, of Baltimore. In the boat were four seamen, one of whom is Barney Galligan, of Newark. The rest of the Morning Star's crew, eleven all told, are believed to have been lost.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

MACON, Ga., March 21, 1879. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty of incluntary manslaughter in the comm unlawful act, in the Jerry O'Connor murder trial O'Connor clubbed Sam Franklin, colored, to death last February. During the argument O'Connor read the HERALD. The penalty is three to five years' im-prisonment in the State Prison.

THE HOYT MURDER TRIAL.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 21, 1879. In the Superior Court this afternoon Mr. Sanford, of the counsel for Edwin Hoyt, moved for an arrest of judgment, on the ground that Charles Wheeler foreman of the jury, had formed and expressed an opinion previous to the trial that Hoyt was guilty and should be hung. Evidence on this point will be heard to-morrow morning.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

St. Louis, Mo., March 21, 1879. John Lanham, alias Charles Johnson, was arrested last night and placed in jail. He is charged with and killing an actress on the stage of : theatre in San Antonio, Texas, in July last; also with wounding two men at the same time. Lanham, who has been in the city three weeks, was recognized among the audience of the Coliseum by an ex-manager of the Texas theatre, who was an eye witness to the shooting and killing. The prisoner makes a west denial of his identity, but jewelry, the property of the woman he murdered, was found on his person, and the positive statements of his accuser are strong points against him.

MURDER TRIAL DEFERRED.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE REBALD.]

RICHMOND, Va., March 21, 1879. The trial of Miss Amelia Linkham for murder which was to have taken place at Lumberton, N. C., this week, has been continued until the next term of the Court. Miss Linkham, it will be remembered, shot and killed her alleged seducer, Edward Hartman, a Baltimore drummer, at Lumberton, on the 24th of October last. She was enceinte and Hartman had promised to marry her.

AN ORANGE TRIUMPH.

MONTREAL, Que., March 21, 1879. The Harney-Russell shooting trial at Sweetsburg resulted to-day in a verdict of not guilty. Russell was carried from the Court by his Orange brethrer amid great enthusiasm.

AN OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT.

In the Police Court of this District to-day Patrick McNamara, George Lowry and James Shugrue were arraigned on the charge of assault and battery upon Miss Maggie M. Chaney last Tuesday night. Miss Chaney, at the time under the escort of Mr. John T. Lighter, was proceeding to her home on Capitol Hill when the accused, with other parties, made an assault upon the lady and gentleman. Mr. Lighter was severely stacked by three of the party, while others seized the young lady, and, throwing her upon the ground, assaulted her in the most outrage-

The young woman in giving her testimony to-day rompletely broke down and was taken sobbing into an adjacent room, where she fainted. There was treat indignation in the court. The prisoners were sent to jail.

A TRAVELLING FORGER.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 21, 1879. James E. Kingsley, alias Kinley, passed on the Central National Bank, of this city, yesterday, a forged check for $500, drawn by the First National Bank of St. Paul against the Metropolitan National Bank of New York, and escaped by the north bound train before the fraud was discovered. He is travelling with a young lady represented as his daughter, and is said to be a most accomplished scoundrel.

AMUSEMENTS.

"FAUST" AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC. Signor Frapoli Signor Del Puente Signor Galassi Signor Franceschi Mme. Pisani Mme. Labiache Mlte. Minnie Huak

"Faust" was given last night at the Academy for the last time this season. It was announced some days ago that last night would also be the final appearance of Mile. Hank before her departure for Europe; but we are now informed that our charming country woman is to be heard at least once more in "Carmen," and probably in a new rôle. But of this more in good once more in "Carmen," and probably in a new rôle. But of this more in good time. The performance of "Faust" list evening was in many respects a memorable one. Miss Hauk's Margherita is an exquisite piece of dramatic and artistic portraiture. She is for the time being the sweet, suffering Margherita, as completely as in "Carmen" she is the wild, impetuous and saucy gypsy. In this self-sacrifice, in the truthfulness and naturalness of her acting, Miss Hauk's greatest charm lies. In, the spinning song she gave us a dreamy pictureka delicious reyerie, that charmed her audience irresistibly. The lewel song was given with perfect artistic and vocal finish. Every phrase gave evidence not only of conscientious study, but of a thorough comprehension of the character of Margherita, the simple Germangirl, whose heart went on ut so readily at the first call. With Signor Frapolit, who was unfortunately not in good voice last evening, Miss Hauk gave a poetic and emotional rendering of that sweetest of operatic love scenes, where in the "silence, soft and sweet, her heart rejoices with a bliss unconfessed," and she has learned "what the 'small sceret voice' is that murmurs so sweetly in her breast." What heauty is contained in this scene, where word and music are blended so completely "as they should be, the sister and the brother!" With the sweet throbbings of her own heart, Margherita sees "the leaves all tremble and dance, and move," It would be a grateful task to dissect Miss Hauk's rendering of the character of Margherita at greater length, but the lateness of the hour at which the performance closed prevents our saying much now. Signor Frapolli sang Faust charmingly, notwithstanding the fact, that he was out of voice. Signor Del Puente's Mephistopheles was vocally satisfactory, but he was much too serious all through. The visible invisible gentleman should take more delight in his devilish work. Signor Galassi sang the part of Valentino, and sang it, of course, with great effect. Mme. Pissani took the part of Siebel, a

The attraction at the Academy of Music this afternoon will be "I Puritani," in which Signori Campanini, Galassi, Mme. Gerster and other prominent embers of the company will appear.

The performance at the Lyceum Theatre this evening will commence with two comedies by the French Company—"Le Bonhomme Jadie" and "Monsieur Va au Cercle." Mmes. Desirée, Blanche, Hermant and MM. Eugene Moreau, Emile Henriot and Paul Juignet are in the casts. After which will follow "H. M. S. Pinafore" in English by Mr. Harvey's

A grand reception and ball will be given at the Academy of Music on Easter Monday, April 14, by Palestine Commandery, No. 18, Knights Templars. Bernstein's full orchestra and Grafulla's Seventh Regiment Band will furnish the dance and promenade music. Among other features will be an exhibition drill of the Grand Commandery. It is likely to prove an interesting event in Masonic circles.

A proposal has been made to Prince Bismarck by an eminent financier to substitute a duty on pianos for the proposed duty on corn. "We understand," says an English weekly, "that this proposal is warmly supported by that very large section of the public which considers music to be only the least disagreeable form of noise, and is anxious to check, or at any rate to tax, the almost universal habit of making every child learn the plane and practise several hours a day for many years, whether it possesses

There has been an interesting musical quarrel in Berlin with reference to Rubinstein's opera "Feramors," which was to be produced at the Royal Opera House. An incident which occurred at the dress rehearsal delayed the piece. The prima donna, Mme. Mallinger, refused to sing a certain portion of the bride's dance. The composer insisted upon her singng it. A quarrel took place and Rubinstein e by leaving the house and declining to conduct. It appears that the portion in question was struck out with the approval of the imperial and Boyal director of the Opera, who, however, had omisted to arrange matters with the composer. However, it is fully intended to perform the opera whether Rubinstein agrees to conduct it personally or not.

The concert at Steinway Hall this evening, to be given by Mr. Christian Fritsch, promises to be one of the best of the season. The programme is varied and attractive, and comprises the names of the following artists:—Mrs. Imogene Brown, Mrs. Florence Rice-Knox. Miss Urchs, Mms. L. Gressler Heim, Mr. A. Stoddard, Mr. Prehn, Mr. H. Bersin, Mr. S. B. Mills, Mr. L. G. Kapp, Mr. E. Agramonte, Mr. Charles Werner, Mr. C. Walter, Mr. F. Brandeis and Mr George Colby. Mr. Fritsch is not only one of the best of our tenors, but he has so frequently and generously tendered his services without charge in he many concerts given for charitable purposes during the last two or three years that he deserves a substantial recognition of the same at the hands of the public to-night.

MISS LENNOX'S READINGS.

Miss Adelaide Lennox opened last evening a course of readings which promises to prove very popular and attractive. Last evening's selections, "Nothing to Wear," "The Maniac," "The Vagabond," "Betsie and I Are Out" and other pieces, showed Miss Lennox to be possessed of high powers of elecution and no little dramatic talent. This afternoon and evening Miss Lennox will read again.

TENNESSEE'S DEBT.

LEGISLATIVE PROPOSITION TO SETTLE AT FORTY CENTS AND POUR PER CENT.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] NASHVILLE, March 21, 1879. After a discussion of ten days the Senate to-day finally passed, by a vote of 13 to 12, a bill to adjust the State debt at torty cents on the dellar and four per cent interest, to be submitted for ratification to a vote of the people September 4. To-night the House passed the bill on its first eading.

The following despatch from New York was read in both houses to-night: both houses to night:—
To the Sreaken of the Tennessee Senate:—
Please read to the Senate of Tennessee this our protest against the assumption that a compromise with the creditors of Tennessee can be effected at fifty cents on the doiint. No offer of settlement other than the Coe sward, modified only as to the rate of interest, say four per cent for four years, can be carried with the bondholders at the committee meeting.

EUGENE KELLY, Chairman.

The Coe award was sixty cents on the dollar and

The Coc award was sixty cents on the dollar and six per cent interest.

Low carrier men sturmorn.

Kelly's despatch aroused the greatest indignation among the low credit men, who swear they will not vote a compromise, and its defeat seems to be inevitable. At the adjournment of both houses they gathered in knots about the halls and excitedly discussed the proposition. They asserted they would vote for a forty cent proposition, but nothing higher than that rate. With almost the entire State press in favor of maintaining the State credit and constantly urging the Legislature to a settlement, the low credit faction have become demoralized and will use the despatch of Kelly as a pretext for non-action. The republicans and State credit democrats twit the low credit men with "I told you so." An exciting session is expected in the House to-morrow.

[From the St. Louis Republican.] "I am come from Old Virginia, that's where I was born and raised, sar," was what Joseph Ray, a colored veteran, who lives in Carondelet, said yesterday to a Republican reporter. Joseph has a history which will perhaps be of interest. He is now seventy-four years of age, but hale and hearty and declares his ability to live at least twenty years more, but never theless is in a constant state of preparation for his departure for another world in case he has made a mistake in his calculations. He is now the husband of his fifth wife and the father of thirty-four legitimate children, the oldest and youngest both living, and he thinks a score at least of the others. The coldest child is now forty years of age, and the youngest but five months. He says that he expects to have at least one more wife and add six children to his family, making a grand total of forty, and when that is accomplished to apply for a pension the balance of his life.

MARITIME MISCELLANY.

Ship Hows—Bark Silver Cloud (Br), at St John, NB, March 21, brought Captain Killam, the mate and three of the crew of the ship Home, of Yarmouth (before reported abandoned), together with the captain's female consinuand the mate's wife. The Silver Cloud sailed from Bristol Jan 29 and on Feb 11 met the Home, which sailed from New York Jan 22 for Antwerp. The hallast of the Home had shifted and she was leaking considerably. Her crew were exhausted, and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon the work of taking them on heard the Silver Cloud commenced. At 10 o'clock that night all hands, twenty men and two women, had been safely removed. The Silver Cloud alay by until the following day and, the gale increasing, then made for St Michael, Arores, which port was reached in 9 days. Fifteen of the crew disembarked there and were taken in charge by the British Consul.
